Claire-Louise Hardie

The Great British Sewing Bee 3: Fashion with Fabric Claire-Louise Hardie, 2015 For burgeoning dressmakers the vast array of fabrics is what both entices the would-be sewer to dress handmade, but it is also what intimidates the first-time sewist when stepping into the haberdashery. Reflecting the episode themes of the third series of The Great British Sewing Bee, each chapter focuses on a type of fabric and demystifies its properties, suitability and uses as well as providing all the instructions and pattern pieces needed to make a collection of universally appealing garments from that fabric type. Many of the 30 garments in the book appear on screen, either as technical challenges faced by the contestants and designed by Claire-Louise Hardie or as projects devised and made by the contestants. The chapter on Cottons explains the properties of this common fabric and gives a variety of designs including a sleeveless shell top, capri trousers, summer dress and beach shorts. This is followed by chapters on wool and natural fibres, knits and stretch fabrics and then luxury fabrics, including lace and sheers. With womenswear sizes ranging from 8 - 20 and menswear sizes ranging from S - XL, as well as the core garment instructions, this book includes all the information you need to get started with your sewing machine and understand both your equipment and the pattern pieces. Claire-Louise's ultimate guide to fitting your own clothes and expert sewing tips from judges May Martin and Patrick Grant will ensure a perfect fit and stunning results.

Every Kitchen Tells a Story Clare De Lore, Julia Brooke-White, 2000 Heart of the home, meeting point, food centre and conversation place: is any room more important than the kitchen? Little surprise then, that for many families it is the kitchen where important events happen, where decisions are made and where lives unravel. It is also true that many kitchens are the domain of one key person, usually (but not always) a woman. In this book Clare de Lore talks to a large number of (mainly) women whose kitchens play a big part in their lives. In some cases the kitchen has been the scene of a significant event, in others the kitchen is used for a non-traditional purpose, while other kitchens are included for their beauty, their location, or simply because their owner is so interesting. Every Kitchen tells a Story profiles more than fifty women and their kitchens. Among the well-known names are Dame Catherine tizard, Kim Hill, Kerre Woodham, Dame Susan Devoy, Jane Young, Vicki Buck and Helen Clark. the profiles are complemented by the superb black and white photographs of Julia Brooke-White.
